3 – Restaurants

THE KITCHEN

Installed in a great setting with a superb sea view, The Kitchen is the main attraction for gastronomy of the LUX Grand Gaube. Breakfast and dinner is proposed in the buffet.

The hotel promises an invigorating blend of traditional Mauritian flavors, vertiginous vistas and soul soothing evenings under the stars.

THE BEACH

Chill out and enjoy a relaxed Mediterranean cuisine that allows you to contemplate a magnificent sight of the lagoon and the many beautiful islands scattered throughout the Northern Coast.

ABALONE

The restaurant specialty is Fish and sea food.

Located on the beach in front of the Blue Lagoon, the Abalone will seduce you with its burning barbecue. Aromatic dishes saturated with passion and the equivocal taste of Rosemary and thyme where you can create your own tray, or let yourself advice by our chef, for a meal which you will definitely not forget that soon.

THE ISLAND KITCHEN

Traditionally housed under the graceful branches of the oldest trees of the island, - the Banyan. The Island Kitchen invites you to taste the popular local dishes, sold from street stalls. All of the flavors, colors, utensils and ancestral techniques have been complied to discover an authentic aspect of life of the island.

THE BAR

Just next to the main pool, The Bar is the most welcoming place for you to quench your thirst all day long, whilst relaxing on stools bar and comfortable sofas, with the panorama of the lagoon in the background. At night, The Bar offers a simple menu but tasty, a full range of beverages, as well as live concerts and animations.

4 –Program : Suggested Activities

CATAMARAN CRUISE: SUNSET TIME

Make the experience of a sunset cruise along the northwest coast of the island of Mauritius.

The sunsets in the North-West of the island of Mauritius are legendary and the best way to appreciate one is to admire from the ocean itself.

You will embark on board a magnificent 40-foot catamaran that will last two hours along the North Coast, while sipping cocktails and tasting snacks served on board while the cruise will take you out of the lagoon, in the direction of the Coin de Mire island. You will navigate along Coin de Mire and see the island and its spectacular cliffs from a closer sight. You will also have excellent views of the other islands of the North and the central mountain range

NORTHERN ADVENTURE: CATAMARAN

An unforgettable experience of cruising on a 45-foot catamaran where you will enjoy the turquoise blue water, breathtaking views, white sand beaches, snorkel in the lagoon and discover the marine life, the delicious food and the bar service. Relaxation and pleasure are throughout the day.

The catamaran cruise starts at 09 h 00, from Grand Bay.

The crews members will make you live a wonderful moment and they will be delighted to share with you local stories, jokes and also play local music Mauritian. Vibrant atmosphere guaranteed!

The Gabriel Island is a natural reserve. Compared to the Flat Island, Gabriel Island has a reduce flora and vegetation. The island is very famous for its pristine beaches and turquoise water surrounding the island. This is a well known superb diving site loaded divers with their masks and tuba.

NATURE: THE BOTANICAL GARDEN

Pamplemousses Botanical Garden is a must-see site of Mauritius. The garden is located at few minutes from the capital of Port Louis.

Created by the French Governor Mahe de Labourdonnais, 3 centuries ago, it became his secondary residence, it became a French botanist; a man named Pierre Poivre created the large botanical garden with over 80 species of Palm trees. Note that Patrick Poivre d'Arvor is one of the descendants of the famous Pierre Poivre.
